Cookie Policy

Effective date: October 22, 2025

Overview

This Cookie Policy explains how Hawkins & Hayes uses cookies and similar technologies on our website.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device to store data that can be retrieved by a web server in the domain that placed the cookie.

How We Use Cookies

- Essential cookies: enable core functionality such as page navigation and access to secure areas.
- Analytics cookies: help us understand how visitors use our site so we can improve performance and content.
- Functional cookies: remember choices such as preferences.

Managing Cookies

- You can control cookies through your browser settings and, where available, via our cookie banner.
- Blocking some types of cookies may impact your experience on the site.

Third-Party Cookies

We may use reputable third-party service providers (e.g., analytics, scheduling, video). These providers may set their own cookies subject to their privacy policies.

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time. The updated version will be posted on this page with a new effective date.
